TYPHOON

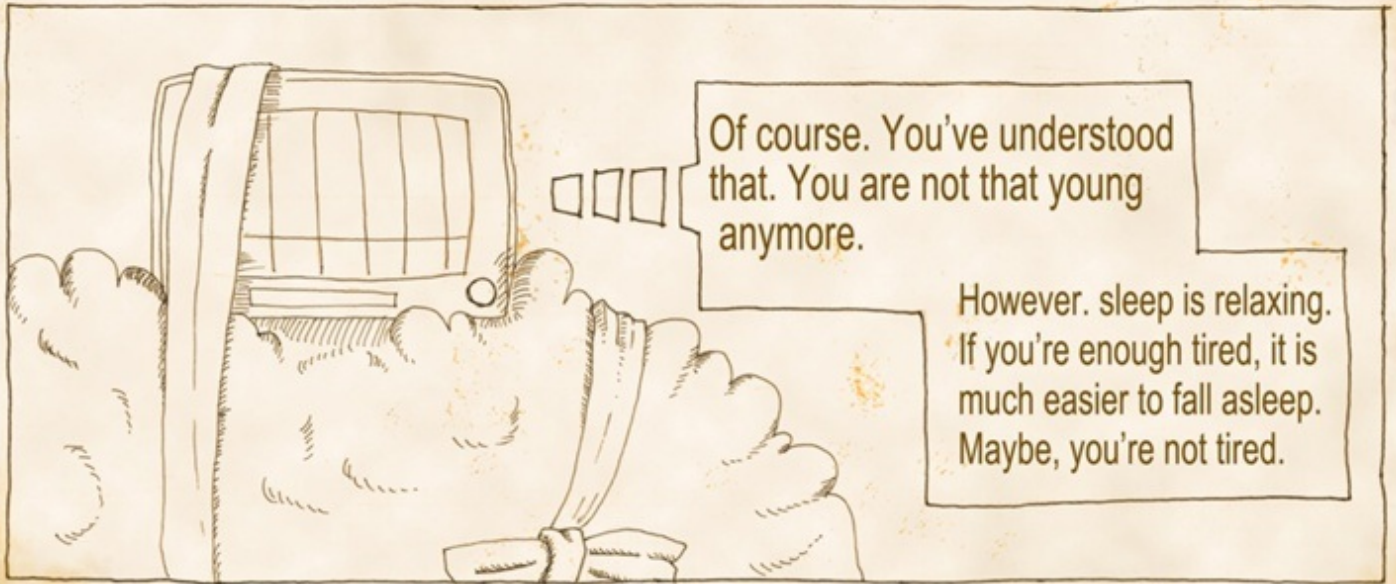

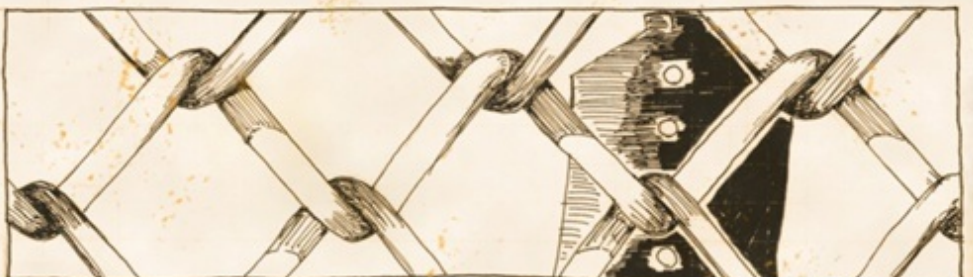

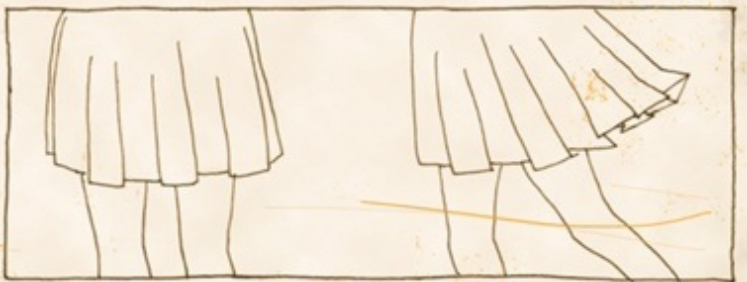

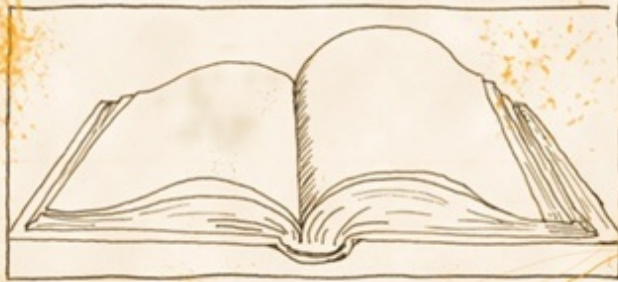

I wake up with the sound of rain and wind.
Remind me that left the window open.

You can have a conversation with friends eating your lunch. Since you're sleeping, you can only sleep.

sleep solve nothing. And can't make you full, you know?

Of course. You've understood that. You are not that young anymore.

However. sleep is relaxing. If you're enough tired, it is much easier to fall asleep. Maybe, you're not tired.

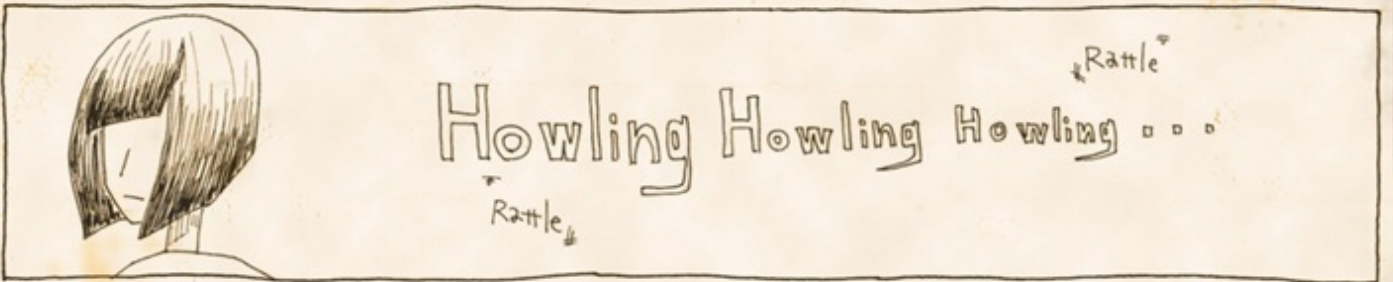

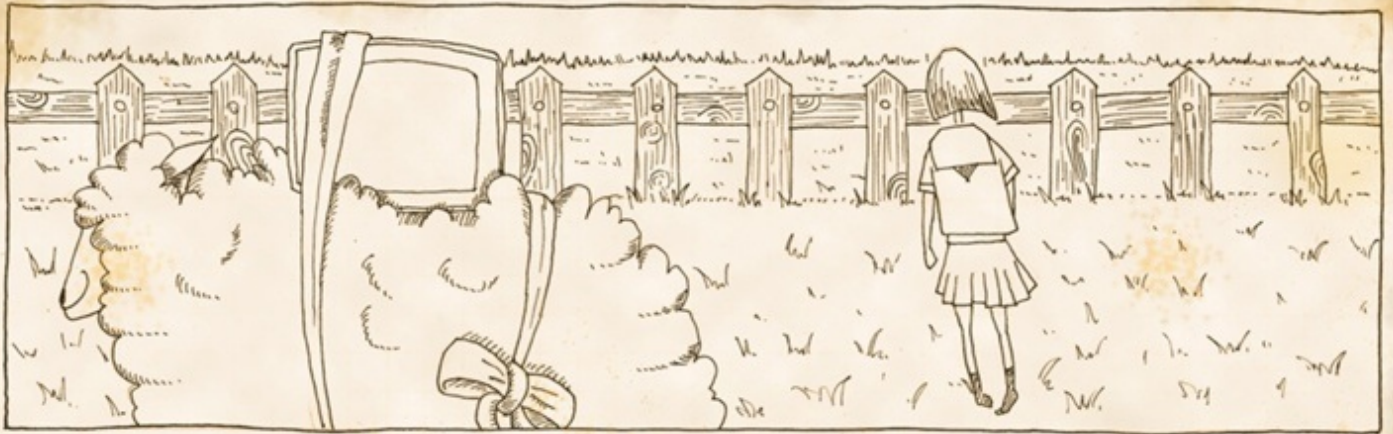

Why you want to sleep yet you don't need it?

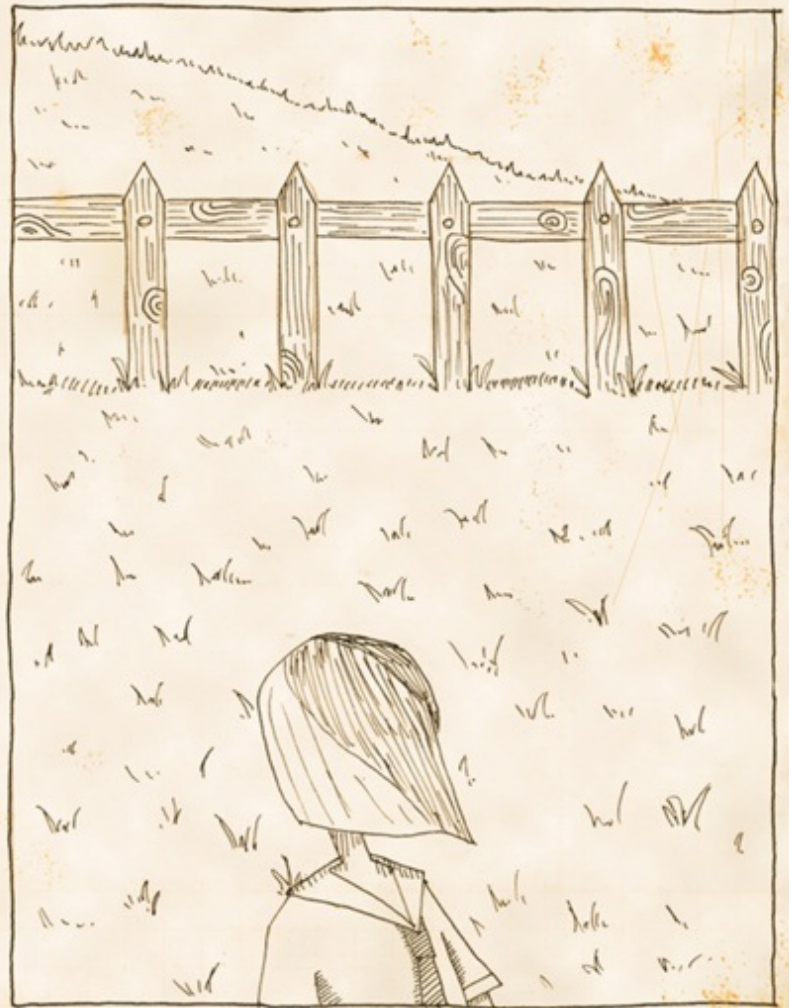

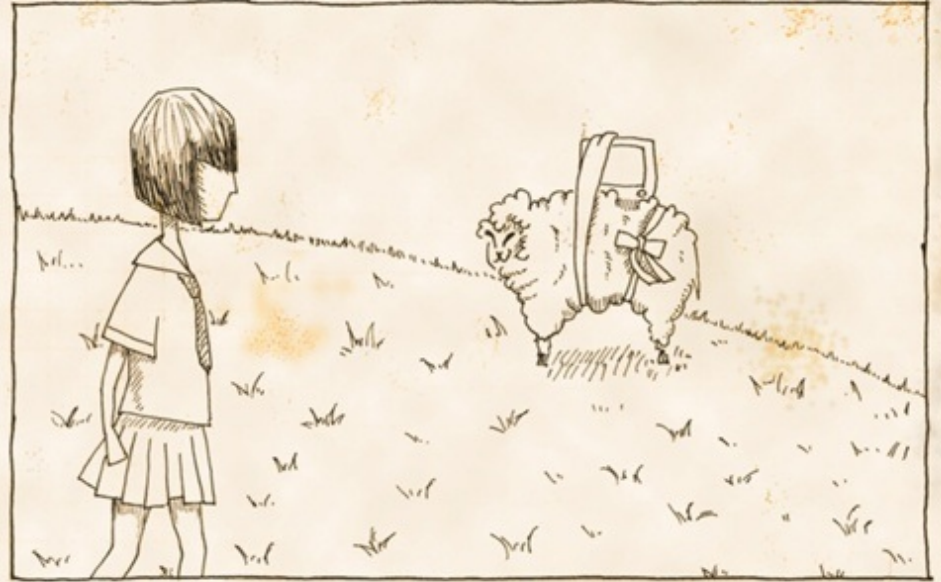

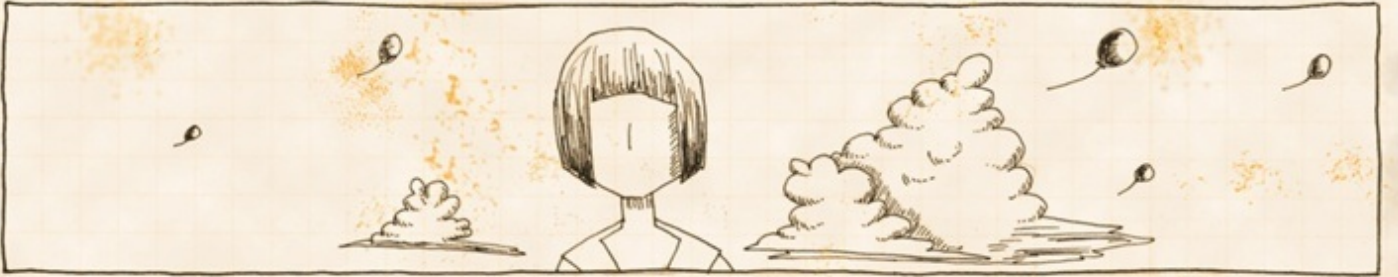

I have someone that
I can see only in my dream.
I've never seen him though.

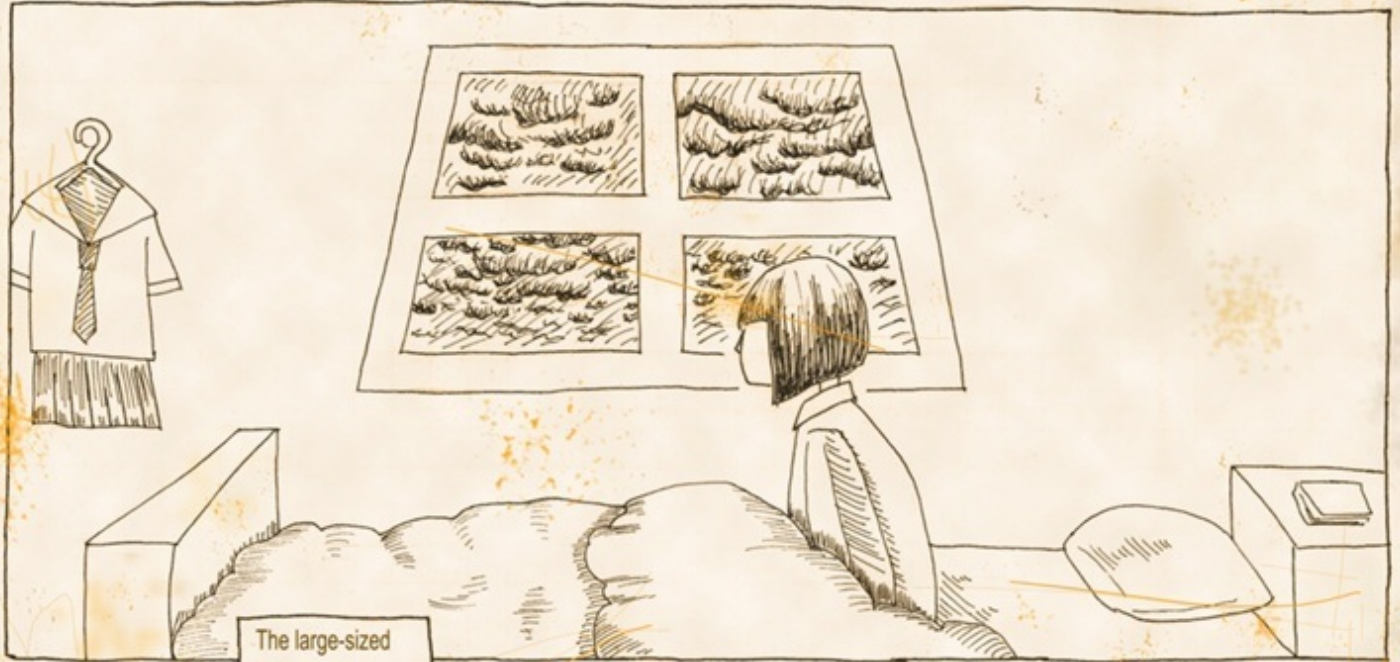

I find him.

But I'll try and try again until...

The large-sized and very strong typhoon No. 17 is still accompanied by the storm zone. You will be going school in heavy rain. you will be very tired.

Even in the distant area, the typhoon carries moist air which cause heavy rain. While TV saying such things, you will forget about your dream. Don't forget taking a umbrella with you. Coming next is a fortune-telling...

How many times
do I have to tell you that awoijg
a:poe40t:!!!!!!!
WAAAWAAWAA!

....LIFE CONTINUES
